Glorious Gardens

Garden competition 2008

For tenants, leaseholders and children

SWINDON
BOROUGH COUNCIL

The annual gardening competition will take place this year in July and all tenants and leaseholders that enter will be invited to a special presentation tea with the Mayor on 6th August.

The competition is open to all Council tenants and leaseholders only. The judges will base their decisions on the best display (colour and design) and ability (resources, technique and effort).

Best house garden

£100 gift vouchers up for grabs for the winner!

Best communal garden

Ideal for those who share a garden. £100 gift vouchers to share for the neighbours involved!

New tenant garden

If you've moved into your house within the last 12 months, this is for you. £100 gift vouchers for the winner!

Best patio garden

This will appeal to those with small gardens or who live in sheltered accommodation. £50 gift vouchers for the winner!

Best hanging basket/tub

The perfect category for those who don't have a lot of room, or who are just starting out. £50 gift vouchers up for grabs!

Children's competition

Two age groups - under 6 and 7-12 year olds. £20 gift vouchers for the best hand drawn or painted picture of a flower, tree, garden - in fact, as long as it's related to gardens, you can choose what to draw!

Special award

£100 gift vouchers to be given at the judge's discretion for outstanding work. It could be based on helping to keep a local pond clean from pollution; keeping an area of communal ground or street clean and tidy; creating a wildlife garden. In essence, work that has been done to help and benefit the community rather than individuals.

The closing date for entries is Friday 4th July 2008 and entries will only be accepted from Council tenants and leaseholders.

Judging will take place on the 17th & 18th July 2008
