

EXT. SCHOOL PLAYGROUND - FENCE - DAY 17

At another part of the fence, the two boys have managed to pull up a corner of the fence and Lucy is crawling through into the forest area. She glances back at Sam.

LUCY

You owe me a Mars Bar at least for helping you out.

Lucy looks back at Emily.

LUCY (CONT'D)

It's only a few trees. The little boys might be scared but we're not, are we?

Emily looks at the trees - she does look a bit scared but she's not going to say so in front of her younger brother.

EMILY

No, 'course not.

And she climbs under the fence, too.

EXT. FOREST - DAY 18

The trees are dark and scary. There's lots of shrubs and plants and loads of litter and rubbish lying around, too.

In among the plants we see the lost football. It seems to be caught in some white branches.

When we look closely, however, we can see that the football is caught and balanced against -

THE HAND OF A HUMAN SKELETON